Brad has been a teaching professional at Rebel Creek G.C. since its inception in 2003. He has established more than four decades of professional teaching and coaching of all ages, including 30 years in public education. His Honours Kinesiology degree provides the foundation to offer his clients both PHYSICAL and PSYCHOLOGICAL aspects of golf. A Bachelor of Education degree ensures a complete understanding that people learn in many ways, therefore lessons must address individual learning strengths. Brad sincerely believes in establishing a developmental model and strategy, unique to the individual, challenging their potential.
